Brief description of types of Food/Craft product that you create, as well as a description of samples to be provided at the event:

Vendors are prohibited from selling any items not listed.

ALL PRODUCTS MUST BE 100% VEGAN (PLEASE ATTACH LIST IF NECESSARY)

My business/organization is...

- Exclusively Vegan Vegetarian Veg-friendly

Which category best describes your business?

- Animal Haven – non-profit animal organizations, animal shelters
- Food Court – vegan food vendors (restaurants, food trucks, cafes, caterers)
- Farmer’s Market – local farms, produce companies, pre-packed foods, flowers
- Vegan Marketplace – vendors selling vegan handcrafted items, apparel, beauty & cosmetics, art, local vegan friendly
- Health & Wellness- yoga & fitness companies, massage therapists, acupuncture
- Veggie Kid – kid-specific vendors

Vendor Agreement

All products sold or given away must be vegan (meaning no meat, fish, fowl or any animal, dairy or egg products including animal derivatives such as fur, leather, silk, lanolin, gelatin, whey, lard, fish sauce, beeswax, honey etc.).

All menus and signage must not depict any animal products. If you have a mix of vegan and non-vegan items on your normal menu, you must create a vegan-only menu to display at the event. If there are photos of animal products on your signage, you must cover them up or bring different signage.

All merchandise sold or given away must be not tested on animals, and should be as environmentally friendly as possible

For a list of non-vegan items see this resource: www.veganfoodandliving.com/features/food-ingredients-avoid-vegan-diet/

- I agree to the Vegan Agreement above, that ALL products sold, offered or promoted will be animal free
